

APRIL HEINRICHS / NIKE – COACHING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

April Heinrichs, Technical Director of the US Women's National Teams Program, and NIKE, Inc. have come together to create a scholarship program for American coaches of female players. Their combined commitment to the development of coaches in the United States is the first opportunity of its kind. Those selected will receive a $1,000 scholarship to help cover the cost of participation in a USSF State or National Coaching Course.

The following are the criteria one must meet to be considered as a candidate for this prestigious scholarship:

1. S/he must be a coach of a women's and / or girl's team.
2. S/he must coach at the recreational, club, high school, Olympic Development Program (district, state, or regional), or college levels.
3. All NAIA and NCAA coaches are eligible.

Application and Award Process:

1. Applications will be accepted continuously.
2. Applications will be reviewed and scholarships awarded twice annually on April 15 and September 15. All applications received prior to April 1 will be eligible for the April 15 selection. All applications received prior to September 1 will be eligible for the September 15 selection.
3. Applications not selected will be held and reviewed for subsequent selections. Updates or changes to status should be reflected in a new application.
4. Winners will have 18 months from the award date to enroll in and attend a course and utilize the scholarship.
